

Our Bessie has gone from our Company,
Our Bessie has gone from our Store,
Unless she will come up for week ends,
We'll all see our Bessie no more!

Good luck, good luck,
We wish you all kinds of good luck, good luck,
Good luck, good luck,
Oh we wish you all kinds of good luck.

It was in "twenty-nine" when she started,
Her gym work was really an art!
Soon she had all the girls looking healthy,
For she had them enthused from the start.
Good luck.....etc.

In "thirty-two" Bess was appointed
As head of the Eaton Girls' Club,
For those girls realized that for Bessie
There just couldn't be any sub.
Good luck.....etc.

She could teach all the games and gymnastics,
And archery was her delight,
But her riding was really fantastic
Horses gave her a terrible fright!
Good luck.....etc.

Now we should say that Bessie tried riding,
But landed on old Mother Earth,
Then ate all her meals while in hiding,
You can take that for what it is worth!
Good luck.....etc.

The hospitals often have blessed her
As she made beds and rendered first aid,
For through all of the war and its conflict
She helped St. John's Ambulance Brigade,
Good luck.....etc.

Last year when our Bess crossed the ocean,
She worked day and night in the "blitz";
And each time she was hailed as "my dearie"
Poor Bess nearly had forty fits.
Good luck.....etc.

Now one night Mr. Price and our Bessie
At a banquet put on a broadcast,
They laughed and they laughed at their memories
Of the girls and their stunts in the past.
Good luck.....etc.

"Many are called but few chosen",
But Oshawa called and chose Bess,
And how we will manage without her
Has become, so they say but a guess.
Good luck.....etc.

And so Bess, we hope you'll be happy,
For we've known you as poised and serene,
And we think they are lucky to get you
At the Oshawa "Y" as their Queen!
Good luck.....etc.
